Overgrown Hedges

The Parish Council is constantly receiving complaints from people who walk around the village about overgrown hedges and bushes on the public footpaths and narrow jitties in the village of Eaton particularly. We would remind residents it is their responsibility to maintain their hedges/bushes and trees in good order and ensure they don't encroach on the public footpaths. Your cooperation in this matter would be greatly appreciated by the Council.

Letter from the Rector

Light for the way ….

Dear Reader of the Village News,

As I am writing this article in mid-December, our nation's future - and its leadership - seems uncertain. The debate over Brexit continues unabated, and what is happening in Parliament raises all sorts of questions about national sovereignty and the working of our democracy, as well as about the nature of our future relations with the EU.

What, if anything, will happen on 29th March, and what will be the long term implications for our economy? Our politicians are really struggling to address the huge constitutional challenges we are facing. There seem to be far more questions than answers, and the way ahead is unclear, to say the least.

The truth is that we don't know what 2019 will bring for any of us - as individuals, families, communities, as a nation, or world. We are embarking on a journey into the unknown. Yet we need not do so on our own.

Christians believe that God offers to share our journey. For in the light of Jesus Christ - whose birth we have just celebrated at Christmas - you and I are assured that God has come to walk life's journey with us, and to lead us into His promised future for us.

In some verses I first came across while growing up in Belfast during The Troubles, we are offered words of encouragement - God-given light for the way, as we face the uncertainty of 2019.

God hath not promised
Skies always blue,
Flower-strewn pathways
All our lives through;
God hath not promised
Sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow,
Peace without pain.

But God hath promised
Strength for the day,
Rest for the labour,
Light for the way,
Grace for trials,
Help from above,
Unfailing sympathy,
Undying love.

With all good wishes,

(John Barr, Rector)

IRONSTONE CHURCHES OPEN MEETING

EASTWELL VILLAGE HALL : Saturday, 26th January from 10.00 am to 12.15 pm

This session will focus on the subject of "Taking Care" and will be facilitated by Canon Judith Wells and Revd David Payne. It is open to all PCC members and others who may also be interested.

Judith and David offer the following as a trailer for "Taking Care" ….

"A look at ways in which our care for each other and our communities can grow the church and serve those around us. In just under two hours we will affirm the good things we are already doing, learn a few practical skills, consider what else we might offer as part of our pastoral ministry, and learn the three magic phrases of pastoral care!".

Lisa Neale has asked for names and numbers from each church of those who are planning to attend by 14th January.

Letter from the Revd James Skinner

Dear Friends,

Do you like to look back to old times thinking that they were better than the present moment?

I guess we are all guilty of doing that at times. Human nature is generally happier with what it knows than stepping out into the unknown. I write at the beginning of December as the end of 2018 comes into view and the start of 2019 looms. What will the new year bring? Old certainties - or disturbing surprises?

In my Advent readings I was pointed to a passage about a rather obscure religious leader, Haggai, who was called to tell his people not to obsess about the past, but to look to the future and discover how God wanted them to work together.
God calls Christian people in the 21st century to do just that.

During my lifetime things have greatly changed. Worship patterns in the countryside have altered with the number of active places of worship declining markedly; chapels closing and parish churches opening less often.

The Bible has much to say about the value of small groups of Christians meeting together. One of the best known is "when two or three meet in my name I am there". However, I do believe that God is calling Christians to work differently in these times.

Gone are the days when many villages had a chapel and a parish church with a well-attended service happening each week. Gone are the days when every large village had its own parish minister living there. Ordained ministers have larger areas to look after than previously.

God is calling us not to look to the past and what used to be, but to ask what we can do now. My vision for Christian worship in village situations is for the different Christian traditions to work out together a pattern that best enables our Christian witness to be shared in a meaningful way, not only on Sunday, but throughout the week.

So, as we prepare to set out into a new year, let us be prepared to embrace new ways of being the Christian Church in our area and not just be content to stick with what has always been. In the words of Joseph Hart's hymn ….

'Tis Jesus, the first and the last,
Whose Spirit shall guide us safe home;
We'll praise him for all that is past,
And trust him for all that's to come.

Joseph Hart (1712-1767)

A Happy New Year to you all.

With best wishes,

James

WALTHAM RESIDENTS

Waltham church has been able to provide, for many years, a monthly newsletter (previously known as Village Voice!) free of charge, absorbing costs of printing etc., to every resident of our village.

We do hope that you have enjoyed reading the articles and information contained within ☺ However, production costs have increased and contributions towards these would be much appreciated.

Your donation will be gratefully received by Mrs Isobel Smith, Treasurer, The Mount, 53 High Street, Waltham; any cheques should be made payable to Waltham Parish Church. Many thanks.

CHURCH CAMPING

You may remember some years ago a group of us used to head off to Newark Showground every year for a week in the summer at the New Wine Christian camp.

There was a lot to do for both children and adults, crafts and activities, inspiring worship, thought-provoking seminars and, of course, the fun of camping outdoors!

Next summer, it is returning northwards! United 19 will be taking place at the East of England Showground, Peterborough, from 27th July to 2nd August and 4th to 10th August.

If you would be interested in joining a group of us or finding out more, then please contact Mike or Chris Alexander on 01664 464802.

WALTHAM CHRISTMAS FAIR

Thank you to all who helped make the Christmas fair, recently held in Waltham church, such a great event.

The children from Waltham Primary school came in the afternoon and sang beautifully to everyone and were treated with sweets by Father Christmas afterwards. There were 11 stalls, selling a range of goods including toys, jewellery, jam, cakes, key rings and scarves. The knitted Mary, Joseph and donkey made an appearance getting ready for their journey round the village.

The impressive sum of £793.80 was raised, which is to be split equally between the school and church.

Thanks again to all who supported us in this successful joint venture.
