Dave Gardner correctly named last month's church as Harby and here's another Vale church with an unusual dedication.

SMALL ADS

Catherine Clemons is offering Health and Beauty Treatments at Home, and her small ad should have appeared this month. However, although I seem to have the telephone code (01952), the number is missing. Does anyone know Catherine? If so, could you please offer my apologies and ask her to give me another call.

Eaton Parish Council

Recycling at the Castle Inn, Eaton

Melton Borough Council have performed a survey of the recycling sites in the Borough, and have decided that, since the introduction of household recycling, there is an insufficient quantity of material in the recycling bins at the Castle Inn to warrant them continuing this service: approximately a quarter of a bin each time. The bins will continue to be emptied until 13th October 2006, when they will be removed.

SOUTH STREET PARKING, SCALFORD

As might have been expected there was some indignant response to the complaint by a Scalford resident about the parking problems in the village, and the label of 'lazy' which was applied to South Close residents.

The latter point out that - unlike some other village homes where cars are also left on the street - they do not have driveways and the facility to park on their own land.

I guess it all goes to prove how difficult a job the Parish Council/LCC/Police have trying to balance safety, access, visual impact and individual freedom, while making everyone aware of the problems and encouraging thoughtfulness and cooperation.

A reminder that the proposed scheme for yellow lines is on the notice board and comments should be made to the MBC with a copy to the Parish Council.

PARISH READING GROUP

Winners of the Penguin Orange Reading Group prize 2006

We have had a great month with all the excitement over winning the prize. We were visited by Marina Lewycka and had an hilarious evening with her discussing her book "A Short History of Tractors in Ukraine", as well as finding out about her life and historical background in the Ukraine. This evening was written about as an article by Marina for the Guardian.

We then had a very enjoyable day at the Penguin Offices in London with a chance to sit in on a monthly editorial meeting and talk to various people from different departments of the organisation. We will never judge a book by its cover again! All this has meant that we didn't get to read our scheduled book last month, so it has been deferred to October.

The Parish Reading group meets at Goadby Marwood Village Hall. Please feel free to come along to our next meeting when we will be read: "We need to talk about Kevin" by Lionel Shriver, on Tuesday, 10th October 2006, at 7.30 pm.

On Tuesday 14th November, we will be discussing "The Kite Runner" by Khaled Hosseini, and on Tuesday 12th November, "Portrait of a Lady" by Henry James.

There is a £1 charge to cover the costs of the village hall. Please contact Colette Stein on 01664.464.823 for further information.

VACANCY

Scaford CE Primary School has a vacancy for a community governor. Is there anyone in the community who is interested in filling this post? We are keen to recruit someone who has a real interest in furthering links between school and community, and who is interested in education, but is not necessarily a parent of children currently at the school. The school's telephone number is 01664.444.282

CAROL SINGING EASTWELL

Carollers will be singing round Eastwell village on Wednesday, 20th December.

Would anyone who wishes to sing please meet in the Institute at 6.45 pm. Everyone will be welcome. Following the carol singing, all singers are invited back to Phil and Suzanne Rathbone's home for light refreshments.

If you'd like more information, please phone Phil or Suzanne on 01949.860911.

EASTWELL CHRISTMAS EVE

"Begin again at Bethlehem"

extra special present?*

"Cameos of Christmas"

Edited and compiled by Joan Revill

A nostalgic look back at Christmas gone by as seen through the eyes of many different writers. It is a "must" for all who enjoy this special season, and will make an excellent gift. Ideal to dip in to, it will provide a useful source of Christmas readings.

*All profits donated to Old Dalby Church
Available from Melton Bookshop,
Price £6.95*

If anyone supports a particular group or charity and is prepared to take copies on sale or return, I would be happy to donate £1.95 to their group for each copy they sell.
