Advertisements. Last call for advertisements! If you wish to advertise/re-advertise, please get in touch as soon as possible, as the current year's will not automatically be carried over. Also, please remember that no alterations can be made during the year: 7,000 copies are printed and these are inserted month by month into the Village News. This is why the cost is so low: £60 per year for a full A5 page, £30 for half and £15 for a quarter.

Money, money! Also, could I make a plea for donations, please? Since publishing the balance of £166 which we held in December, we have paid 4 x £40 to print issues from January to this month of April.

TESA SPONSORSHIP

Eastwell PCC are joining the growing number of people who are sponsoring children under the TESA scheme. To cover the cost, they plan to hold an ad hoc event each year.

Ajimo Sarah lives in a rural area in Uganda, with her seven brothers and sisters, and has been offered a place at a secondary school which could not otherwise be taken up.

At the church service in Eastwell on 6th April, Margaret and Roger Stevens, together with their friend Marianne, will do a power point presentation, with lots of photographs. Margaret is the founder and administrator of the TESO scheme, and is very happy to stay after the service and chat to everyone, and answer any questions which may arise.

EASTER CELEBRATIONS AT ST EGELWIN'S

The St Eg appeal got off to a cracking start with a very well supported and enjoyable Easter Saturday event. No less than 18 decorated cardboard eggs, plus one enormous egg on the font arrived during the morning to make the already flower-bedecked church so very colourful and welcoming. At the afternoon craft event our visitors created a further 7 banners, two more eggs and a splendid array of Easter Bonnets for our parade on Easter Day. The Easter Egg Hunt was great fun but, oh dear children, you missed one of the nests. Never mind, we enjoyed these later!

St Egs - Back to the future
School - Church - Community

What a feast the weekend was! It would be fabulous if we could do this every weekend and have as much fun. Approximately £60 was raised to scramble off the St Egs Appeal. Thank you everyone for all your support in making the event so successful.

Libby and Penny".

EASTWELL

The Institute Committee would like to say a huge thank you to all the people who attended the Coffee Morning, and to all those who donated. A total of £205.00 was raised—a fantastic amount for the Air Ambulance.
