PRINTING COSTS

With great reluctance, Print & Buy have had to increase the monthly cost of printing these pages to £65.00 (as opposed to £40.00). Like everything else, the price of paper and the costs of printing have both risen. The firm provides the yellow paper as well as printing these pages..

I have almost £400 in hand, so although it will decrease more rapidly than expected, it will last for six months or so. Thank you to everyone who has donated this year—I will list donations in December's issue.

FLUTET CONCERT, EASTWELL

The following write up on the concert has been received from John Duckworth for inclusion in the Village News:

The 'Last Night of the Proms' concert on TV did not deter a goodly number of people from attending a concert at Eastwell church given by the Matthew Lynch Flute Quartet, a newly formed group of flautists playing under the name of 'FluTet'.

Along with Matthew was Amy Thompson, who, like Matthew, is another student reading music at Oxford University, together with Michelle Gill teaching for Leicestershire Arts in Education and Dana Morgan at Leicester Grammar School.

Their programme included arrangements of music, particularly of the French school, and we were treated to a delight of deft integration of parts and gentle chords played mainly in the warm middle register of the instruments. This was very sensible because when two or more flutes play loudly in harmony at the top of their registers, the vibrations they set up can create a very disturbing buzz in listeners' ears, as happened in their opening Slavonic dance by Dvorak.

When Dana Morgan flawlessly played a work entitled "Recall" by the contemporary composer Dave Heath, we found ourselves listening to a piece demanding enormous dexterity and an exceptional technique. The programme concluded with three Latin American dances and a nursery medley (demanding the use of both an alto and bass flute), which, with an encore "In the Kitchen", made a spirited end to a very enjoyable evening.

Need a CLEANER?

Do you, or someone you know, require a cleaner for general household maintenance?

If so, please contact Kerry on 07901 764 925.

We are looking for people to come forward and make a real difference to a member of their local community by helping lonely elderly people feel less isolated

The rewards for donating your time are huge: an immense sense of satisfaction that you are welcomed and valued and that you have helped someone by just spending some time with them. You would be very much appreciated not only by ourselves at Voluntary Action, Melton, but also by the clients themselves.

SCALFORD CANCER RESEARCH FUND

Is there anyone in the Scalford area willing to pick blackberries, please, to make blackberry vinegar for the Cancer Research fund?

Also wanted: paperbacks, bric-a-brac, jigsaws, or anything else saleable for the Cancer fund.

Contact Janet Allen, 01664 444622

CAN YOU MAKE A GOOD CUP OF TEA?

The amount of time you want to give is entirely up to you. This can range from having a cup of tea and a chat for an hour a week, up to 3 or more visits per week, or taking the client to the shops, accompanying them to an appointment with the doctor or for a walk. It is up to the befriender and the client how far they would like the relationship to develop.

If you can share a couple of hours a week with an elderly person and would like to get involved, please call:

Catherine Halliman,
Community Development Worker
on 01664 485307,
to have a chat and find out more.

An Ode on SCALFORD'S PATRON SAINT

by ANDY WADE

Written to mark the start of the "Back to the Future" fundraising appeal

St Egelwin, St Egelwin
And which of you remembers him?
One feels that he was kind and pure
But why, one wonders, so obscure?

'Cross England's greening, lovely sward
Of village, hamlet, town and ward
Stand churches, old, majestic, tall,
They're named for Matthew, George or Paul.

There's Peter, Joseph, John and James,
Michael, Andrew, so many names.
The saints that we all know and love.
Such men are blessed by God above.

Familiar to our country ways
Those old and solid sobriquets
From day to week and month to year
Their names fall easy on the ear.

But here in Scalford, our sweet home,
With Norman tower, not spire nor dome,
Stands straight our own so perfect kirk,
Crumbling, maybe, and needing work.

Still, nonetheless, a beauteous spot,
Whose ground, they say, contains the plot
Where's buried he, for good or worse,
The inspiration for this verse.

No other church, however pure,
Is blessed with his nomenclature.
A thousand years have passed him by,
With more to come, yet still he'll lie

Asleep beneath the grass-green turf,
Entombed and held by Scalford's earth,
This saint will rest in cold embrace
In expectation of God's grace.

But right it is someone unknown
Should guard and keep our house of stone,
For Leicester's folk from hill or fen
Are simple, private, modest men.

So even if he has a name
That won't be heard in halls of fame,
Pour out the praise for him, I beg,
Uniquely ours, our own St Eg!
