Don't miss the NATIONAL FOREST WOOD FAIR 2009 On August Bank Holiday Monday

If you love trees, beautiful things made of wood and enjoy a day out in the country, The National Forest
Wood Fair is the place for you. Held at Beacon Hill Country Park near Woodhouse Eaves, the Wood Fair is now in its fifth year, and just gets bigger and better.
New this year will be a lumberjack show, longbow displays and talks on trees and woodland. Chainsaw carvers will be out in force, producing items for the charity auction.

15 local craftsmen have been invited to make items from a recently felled oak tree and display them at the fair; these will include benches, floorboards, nestboxes, stools, gates, bowls, signposts, chainsaw sculpture, firewood, charcoal and woodship.

Open 10.00 am to 5.00 pm Monday, 31st August.
Admission (incl. car parking): £6, concessions £4, family ticket £14.

See www.leics.gov.uk/woodfair.

EATON VILLAGE DANCE There will be no Village Dance during July

Launde Abbey Appeal Friday, 10th July 12-4 Yoga and Walking afternoon Goadby Marwood Village Hall

The afternoon will start with an hour and a half of gentle yoga. We will then break for afternoon tea. At 2pm I propose a walk, either to Scalford along the Jubilee Way or a circular walk which takes approximately one hour. If you would like to do just the walk or just the yoga you would be very welcome. All the proceeds from the afternoon will go to the Launde Abbey appeal. If anyone would like to offer help with the afternoon tea that would also be appreciated.

Fee a minimum donation of £10 for the whole afternoon or £5 for either part, please.

VICARAGE GARDEN
TEA PARTY

Wednesday, 8th July at 2.30 pm

This annual event for our senior members is opened up this year to include anyone who would like to come.

It will help us to know approximate numbers. Please let Beverley or your local churchwardens know if you are coming. Also ask for a lift if you need one.

If you would like to help with the catering on the day or make cakes for the tea party, please let Beverley know.

There will be a special bring and buy and cake stall to raise funds for Launde Abbey Retreat House, which is in danger of closing; repairs and modernisation are urgently needed.

Please bring something for the table and some spending money!
