THE ROYAL BRITISH LEGION, HOSE & HARBY BRANCH

In appreciation of the support given to the Poppy Appeal over the last three years by the villages of Goadby Marwood, Chadwell and Wycomb, the Royal British Legion (Hose & Harby Branch) are holding a parade and Remembrance Service at St Denys' Church, Goadby Marwood, on Sunday, 15th November, at 11.00 hours.

The parade will march from Towns Lane End with the standards at 10.45 am, to the church for the 11.00 am service.

We look forward to it, and hope you will support this service, where we can stand together and pause to remember those who have given their lives for the prize of freedom.

Thank you — G Spence

SCALFORD CHURCHYARD

Children have been seen climbing on the church wall and also on the memorial stone. The Parish Council would like to know the names of any child/children involved, and wish to urge anyone who does know to pass the names of the offenders—anonously, if necessary—to any member of the Council. Repairs to the church wall can be very costly and involve obtaining a faculty from the Diocese, which is an extremely lengthy process. Also, children may not be aware of the distress such disrespect for a memorial causes.

CASH BOOST FOR VOLUNTEER HISTORIANS

The Adult Learning Challenge Fund was launched this year (by the Museums, Libraries and Archives Council), and Melton Carnegie Museum has recently been granted nearly £5,000 for volunteer historians to develop workshops and expand their skills.

The money will enable Melton borough residents with a passion for uncovering the past to acquire and develop the know-how to help them create, expand or research local history records.

Work is well underway with three projects recording Melton town and country life:

- ⇒ Our Local
- ⇒ A Year in the Country
- ⇒ Taking Part

Four areas of introductory study are:

- ⇒ Industrial archaeology
- ⇒ Prewar agriculture
- ⇒ Building methods and materials
- ⇒ Graves and memorials

Details of local history workshops will be announced later. For more information call Jenny Dancey on 01664 569946, email: meltonmuseum@leics.gov.uk or write to :
The Melton Carnegie Museum, Thorpe End, Melton Mowbray, LE13 1RB.

First of all, many, many apologies to Edna. She did give me this notice last month, and I've just found it, scrawled on the back of an envelope.

THANK YOU

Edna Pugh would like to thank all neighbours and friends for the beautiful flowers and cards sent to her on her 90th birthday. They were all much appreciated

SPECIAL EVENING SERVICE

A benefice-wide service is being held on 15th November in Eastwell church with Jeremiah Aculen from Uganda and Margaret Stevens, who runs the TESS sponsorship scheme (more details on page 14). If you are curious/interested—or whatever else—in this scheme to provide secondary education for Ugandan girls, why not come along and hear more about it. The recent fashion show in Eastwell church and the accessories stall at the fete were held to pay the annual fees for Ajimo Sarah, the girl sponsored by Eastwell church, and copies of her letters and school reports can be seen on the notice board in the church.
