VALE POLICING WITH PCSO PALMER

Inconsiderate parking is a concern that many local residents have been bringing to the attention of the Vale Police Team. This has mainly been in the streets surrounding schools at start and close of school day and is causing a few close encounters. Before this becomes a major issue I would like to take this opportunity to warn people of the dangers of parking across zigzag lines or close to junctions.

If you are driving along a road and vehicles are double parked, parked close to the junction or parked half on the pavement, can you honestly see what is coming out from within? Can you see the small child who has dropped his ball into the road and wants to collect it? Can you see the vehicle trying to pull out onto the road to drop their child off as well? I would suggest the answer is no. Please consider where you are leaving your vehicle, even if only for a short while, as this could pose a danger to young children and other members of the community.

The changes to the policing structure across Leicester, Leicestershire and Rutland have now been in place for a full calendar month, and the success of the new operating system is already apparent. The visibility of local neighbourhood officers across the County has risen 40%. On a local level the Vale has seen a 5 year low in terms of crime figures. This is currently down 35% compared to 5 years ago. Again, this shows that your local police are tackling crime constantly, keeping the Vale a safe place to live, work and visit.

If you have any concerns of policing issues across the Vale, then please contact your local Beat Team by email, or on 101 and ask to speak to a member of the Vale Beat Team. You can also visit www.leics.police.uk and navigate to Local Policing>Melton Rural North for Vale Police News.

I would also like to start answering some policing questions from the community in upcoming issues of this publication, and as such would ask for any questions to be sent directly to me via email: liam.palmer@leicestershire.pnn.police.uk. I will aim to answer as many questions as possible in each issue. I look forward to hearing from you!

90th ANNUAL EXHIBITION OF FLOWERS, FRUIT, VEGETABLES & HOMECRAFT

EATON VILLAGE HALL on SATURDAY, 29th AUGUST, 3.30 to 6.00 pm

Details of the Schedule and how to enter will be in August's Village News as well as on village notice boards. Mark the date in your diary - come along - enter something - have a cuppa - help to make this 90th show memorable.

St Denys Church, Goadby Marwood Fundraising Campaign
SAVE OUR GRADE 1 LISTED BUILDING

St Denys has a requirement to raise a minimum of £10,000.00 per annum, in order to remain open for services, without spending any money on repairs or upgrade. A number of our parishioners who have made regular giving in the past have either died or left the village. We are, therefore, making this Appeal, not only to continue to provide a place of worship, but also to give a service for baptisms, weddings and funerals. One may not wish to attend church but would, however, not wish to see a Grade 1 listed building of fine architectural merit, deteriorate through lack of adequate maintenance.

We are, therefore, commencing a fund raising campaign, by having in Goadby Marwood Village Hall a sumptuous Cream Tea at 3.00 pm on Saturday, 18th April 2015, free of charge and provided by Sans Souci, a well known local caterer. Tickets for this event will be available from Mr and Mrs Dave Gardner, at No 24 Main Street, Goadby Marwood - telephone number 01664 464 755.

This will be followed by a Launch Appeal Service in St Denys, at 6.00 pm on Sunday, 26th April 2015, with the service being conducted by the Archdeacon of Leicester, The Venerable Dr Tim Stratford.

Please support either one or both of these events, so this beautiful church can continue to serve our future generations. Thank you. Goadby Marwood PCC

FORTHCOMING EVENTS

Two "TALKING HEADS"

By Alan Bennett, with the Library Theatre Touring Co
16th May 2015, 7.00 for 7.30 pm
GOADBY MARWOOD VILLAGE HALL

A LADY OF LETTERS. Miss Ruddock's civil liberties are dear to her, and writing letters is how she likes to assert those rights. One of these missives pushes her to the brink, with unexpected, but liberating consequences.

BED AMONG THE LENTILS. Susan, an alcoholic, nervous vicar's wife who has to travel into Leeds to go to the off-licence because of her debts with the local shop keeper, distracts herself from her ambitious, and, as she sees him, vainly insensitive husband and his doting parishioners by conducting an affair with a near by grocer, Ramesh, discovering something about herself and God in the process.

Tickets £7; Raffle on the night
BRING YOUR OWN DRINKS
Proceeds to Village Hall Funds.

Alan Bennett sealed his reputation as the master of observation with a series of 12 ground-breaking monologues. Darkly comic, tragically poignant and wonderfully uplifting, the series of Talking Heads is widely regarded as a modern classic.
