MAY NEWSParish Council Meetings

Annual Parish Council Meeting:
Thursday, 19th May at 7.30 pm in Goadby Marwood Village Hall

Members of the public are welcome.
Agendas and minutes are on the village notice boards on the Friday before the meeting, or on the following website.
www.leicestershireparishcouncils.org/eaton

Councillor Vacancy. Following the recent resignation of Alan Hewson from the Parish Council due to work commitments, a casual vacancy will be created. The Parish Council are looking for someone ideally living in Eastwell who would be interested in becoming a Parish Council councillor. However, due to the current structure of the Council it is possible that someone from Eaton or Goadby Marwood would be considered. In the first instance, for further information or an informal chat, please contact Chris Hill, details as above.

Allotments. There are still one or two allotments available at a cost of £20.00 per year plus a £50.00 returnable deposit for a full plot, or £10.00 plus £25.00 returnable deposit for a half plot. Anyone interested should contact Chris, details above, or Councillor Mike Whiston on 01476 870043.

MAY NEWSParish Council Meetings

Wednesday, 11th May at 7.30 pm in Scalford Primary School
Wednesday, 8th June at 7.30 pm in Scalford Primary School
Members of the public are welcome

Agendas and minutes are on the village notice boards Thursday before the meeting, or on the following website: www.leicestershireparishcouncils.org/scalford.

Allotments

Following a recent allotment inspection, it appears that one or two allotments have not been worked on this year and have a fair crop of dandelions on them; if these are allowed to seed, it will cause problems for other tenants. We will be writing to the tenants concerned and look forward to their cooperation; plots that are not tenanted will be dealt with by the council.

We would remind existing tenants that a requirement of the Agreement is that allotments must be cultivated and not left to weed over and cause problems for other tenants.

Parish Councillors.

VALE POLICING WITH PCSO PALMER

The Vale Beat Team are currently receiving complaints of vehicle related anti-social behaviour (ASB) on roads, car parks, bridal ways and footpaths, including areas that are protected as Sites of Special Scientific Interest (SSSI). As a result of these complaints, I wanted to inform you of a piece of legislation that gives us, as police, powers to tackle these issues directly.

That power is Section 59 of the Police Reform Act of 2002. The Act was introduced to deal with vehicles that were being used on roads to cause alarm, distress or annoyance, or where it was deemed that the driver was acting carelessly or inconsiderately. This covers things like revving engines in a car park, playing loud music in the street or performing handbrake turns.

In this piece of legislation the 'road' also covers any highway that the public have access to, and footpaths, bridal ways, as well as grass verges.

The Act gives power to any Constable or PCSO who deems a vehicle to be driven in such a way as set out above, to seize the vehicle and report the driver for the offence. The driver will be issued information about how they can reclaim the vehicle, along with fees such as recovery and storage costs which are paid prior to release. Any unclaimed vehicle will be scrapped.

Seizure is a second stage to the legislation, with a warning given to the driver and vehicle (registered on the Police National Computer) the initial requirement of Police. The warning remains for 12 months and covers use of the same vehicle by another driver, or the driver's use of a second vehicle. If stopped for a second time in the 12 month period, the vehicle will be seized and driver reported. The 12 month warning also covers police for immediate and direct seizure should further offences be committed.

Over the coming months we will be using this legislation to tackle the anti-social use of vehicles within the area, so please make sure that you report any incidents of this nature to us by calling 101.

Anyone who is suffering with ASB should call the police on 101 or 999 in an emergency. Further information is also available on the Leicestershire Police website, www.leics.police.uk and on facebook (Melton Police) or Twitter (@MeltonPolice).

CHURCH OF ENGLAND

www.ironstonechurches.com

Calling all CHILDREN and their families. Here at St Egelwin's Church, Scalford, we offer MESSY CHURCH, SCHOOL CHURCH CHOIR and FAMILY 430.

What are they?

Messy Church is a lively session, held once a month from 3.30 to 5.00 pm, with a story, song, activities and a meal.

Choir is from 3.30 to 4.30 pm, also once a month, where primary age children are invite to sing (some new, some old numbers), with the chance to do a little drama and readings.

Family 430 is at 4.30 pm, again once a month, for families to come together for a service to use the skills learnt at choir and extend understanding from Messy Church.

Why are they?

To teach children about the Church and what it can offer; to learn and understand social values and about living as a member of the community; to develop confidence through offering the chance to perform; to contribute to others' lives and to help children develop as individuals and as a member of a group.

When are they?

See the Ironstone Villages Family of Churches' website or the Village News, but generally:

Family 430 service is the 3rd Sunday of the month with choir on the Tuesday prior to this service
Messy Church is on the last Tuesday of the month

So what's this all about?

For children: all ages, all interests

For families: learn and pray alongside your children, dads, grandparents, aunt and uncles.

For everyone: friendship, develop and use your skills and gifts, start a journey, continue a faith journey in a safe, cheerful and inspiring atmosphere ... even bring the neighbour.

And cake and fun!

We are proud of the work we do with our children here at Scalford and invite you all, in whichever village you live, to join us. For more details contact Lisa Neale or Penny Clemons or come along and see for yourself.
