he distribution of these yellow pages was somewhat erratic last month, and there were some differences in the wording appearing on the front page, which changed as plans for its future were being made.

Some copies mentioned that if anyone had any local photographs, they could be used on this front page. (My good intentions to take a seasonal photograph each month always fail spectacularly).

Sarah Lambert responded with this photograph taken by Neil Gardner in a field in Scalford. Thank you, Sarah and Neil.

The Parish Council would like to thank people who have donated already towards repairing the striking mechanism on the clock; they are much appreciated. We are getting much nearer to the total required, so again if there is anybody still thinking of making a donation, but didn't get round to it last time, please help to push us over the line, so to speak. EATON HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY incorporating EASTWELL & GOADBY MARWOOD

Thank you to all exhibitors and those who supported our 93rd annual Horticultural Show in August. Despite the heatwave and no rain for several weeks, we managed yet again to have an enjoyable and successful show. This was due in no small part to both Don and Jean Shields' organisation skills!

However, after 63 years of being involved one way or another, Don has decided to relinquish his responsibilities as Secretary of the Horticultural Society and organiser of the annual horticultural show. He would now like to enjoy more time preparing and showing exhibits without the organisational responsibility. Thankfully, he is happy to remain in the wings for advice and support. We would like to thank Don for his hard work, dedication and cheerful enthusiasm, without which this annual show would not have continued so successfully for so many years.

The Committee is pleased to be able to tell you that Paul Britton has volunteered to take on the responsibilities as Secretary of the Horticultural Society and organiser of the annual show! To ensure its successful future, Paul welcomes any feedback on this year's show, plus any ideas, thoughts or improvements for future shows. All comments will be considered and discussed with committee members and those who help each year.

Letter from the Rector

Called to Pioneer

Dear Reader of the Village News,

I wonder what image the word 'pioneer' evokes for you? For me, it connects with the story of the American pioneers who moved away from their familiar surroundings to head West, and to begin a new way of life as settlers.

I remember how histories like Laura Ingalls Wilder's Little House on the Prairie painted such a vivid picture of what life was like for one particular pioneer family, as they left their home in Wisconsin forest and started out for the West in a covered wagon.

Pioneering is about breaking new ground, and about starting new ventures. It is about being willing to explore possibilities beyond the familiar, to think and act 'outside the box'. Pioneers remind us that, if we want to discover new things, then we need to move outside our 'comfort zone'.

This will involve trying things out, and learning as much from failure as success. And that can certainly be scary, as well as exciting!

I wonder if you have heard about Pioneer Ministry in the Church of England? Over the past few years, the Church of England has encouraged those called to pioneer new ways of being church (sometimes known as 'fresh expressions'), and in the Diocese of Leicester Pioneer Ministry has been recognised as one to which some are called, and for which they are then licensed by the Bishop. If you're interested in finding out more, further details are available on the Diocese of Leicester website under the ministry section heading (<https://www.leicester.anglican.org>).

Within the Ironstone Villages Family of Churches, Mike and Christine Alexander are going to be licensed as Pioneer Ministers at a special service in Leicester Cathedral on Saturday, 13th October. Based in Waltham, the Alexanders will be looking to pioneer new ways of connecting the Christian faith with the wider community, and network with the growing number of pioneers across the Diocese.

Last month, Mike and Chris started a Café Church in Waltham which will now meet on the third Sunday morning of every month (9.30 to 11.00 am) - do consider giving it a try, and watch this space!

With all good wishes,

(John Barr, Rector)

Letter from the Revd James Skinner

Dear Friends,

The year seems to be passing very quickly and it will soon be October! A year that seems to have been dominated in the United Kingdom by extremes of weather, cold and wet earlier in the year followed by a very hot dry summer and two storms in a week in September.

The 21st to 28th October is One World Week. Each year the One World Organisation produces some very thoughtful and challenging material about people's present lifestyle.

This year's theme is "The World is Changing - How about us?". In the middle of September some climate scientists argued that the human race has just 25 years to change to stop climate change going out of control.

Seven years ago, the One World Movement considered the effect our present lifestyle has on the world and suggested five ways we could think through these issues.

Firstly, by valuing our planet and all life within it! Secondly, caring for the Earth now - before it is too late. Thirdly, learning about the effects of climate change and how to adapt to it. Fourthly, understanding that our actions in the UK impact upon the lives of people in some of the poorest parts of the world. Fifthly, what we choose to eat, buy and how we travel. This all affects people across the globe.

The Bible contains some very hard-hitting teaching which, while not specifically a "One World" theme, clearly has application to the way that we live now. The Old Testament prophets were very clear about justice issues. Micah says:

*With what shall I come before the Lord?
 He has told you, O mortal, what is good;
 and what does the Lord require of you
 but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?
 (Micah 6: 6 and 8)*

Jesus said many times that if we really love God we must love others too: people who live close to us and people who live in other parts of the world, particularly the world's poor.

One World Week is an annual event, but the issues that it raises are everyday ones. They are also faith issues. Each of us is challenged to look critically at our current lifestyle and reflect on how that impacts on other people. Jesus dares us all to live our lives, not just for ourselves, but for all who live in the world.

With best wishes,

James

THESE YELLOW PAGES

Many apologies for the erratic distribution of the yellow pages over the past couple of months, and many thanks to all those who offered to help.

Printing

Print & Buy no longer have a printer in-house and are therefore unable to continue printing them. We would like to thank them unreservedly for all the help they have given each month over many, many years.

Alternate arrangements have been made, and they will in future be printed on the Ironstone Churches machine. They will continue (hopefully!) to be paid for by voluntary donation, as they always have been. Provisionally it is estimated that the cost will be slightly less.

Web site

Last month brought to light the fact that not many people realise that these pages appear on a web site. For many years now Woody Kitson has put them on his web site and they are frequently available there before they are delivered house to house. The web address appears at the top of each page, ie. <http://villagenews.e-kit.co.uk>.

Also, because of the distribution problems we had, for the first time last month the pages were uploaded to the Eaton village site, www.eatonvillage.org.uk (see under 'useful information') by Derek Janes, who is happy to do this each month.

Future issues

Future issues will include the villages of Waltham and Stonesby. This will mean an extra 4 x A5 pages, but will not affect the way our six villages pay, ie. by voluntary donation, for the number of copies we have printed (600). Let's hope all goes well!

GENERAL NOTICES, cont.THE VILLAGE NEWS
SUMMARY OF FUNDS

August's balance was £586.00, and as we didn't have any printed in September (except a limited number by me!) and we're not yet sure how much the monthly printing cost will be, it remains at £586.00. An up-dated balance will be given next month.

Sam Green and the Midnight Heist

Saturday, 3rd November

Sam Green and the Midnight Heist, based in the south-west of England, play swamp-infested Blues, Folk, Roots Rock music. This high energy 4 piece whip up a storm with stompin' beats, dog house bass and growlin' slide guitars. Throw in wailin' harmonicas and four howlin' voices and you have yourself a modern day juke joint sound; guaranteed to bring any old house down.

Chris King Robinson Band

Saturday, 1st December

Chris' fresh, modern take on the Blues in 2016 led to him playing the highly exclusive Lead Belly Festival, held at the world-renowned Carnegie Hall in New York City.

Chris played a scorching psychedelic jam to the sold out crowd.

At the age of just 21, this is only the beginning for a guitarist who many think will become the standard bearer for 'The Blues' for years to come!

CHADWELL CHURCH'S FIRST EVER
REMEMBRANCE SERVICE will be taking place on SUNDAY, 28th OCTOBER at 2.00 pm

This will be a very special occasion for the smallest church in the Ironstone Benefice and one of the oldest in Leicestershire. The people of Chadwell very much hope you will come and support them in remembering Private Henry Brown, the only soldier from Wycombe and Chadwell to lose his life in the First World War.

Come and hear the story of Henry and read about it on the new display in the church, and also meet some of his descendants. The service will be taken by former senior military Chaplain,

the Rev Douglas Dennis CBE HCF

and supported by members of the Hose and Harby Branch of the British Legion, who will parade with standards.

Refreshments will be provided after the service.

Come and enjoy a very special service and have a look round this ancient church.
