Please may I have all items for the June issue by Monday, 22nd May

Tel. 01949.861256 : SueWatford@aol.com

Unfortunately I didn't manage to get the new advertising pages done in time for this month's issue: these will now therefore run from June 2006 to May 2007. Also, to make life easier, I'm limiting page numbers to the actual monthly content (12 pages). Useful telephone numbers will appear (not this month) on the page immediately preceding page 9. Sorry about all the omissions last month!

Jenny Barnes (Eastwell) was the first to name last month's church correctly—Sage Cross in Melton.. This month we have a fairly local church in a 'snaky' village. Thanks again to Brian Hollingshead.

Scalford Parish Council

SANDY LANE PARKING

Motorists are continuing to park on the passing area on Sandy Lane, causing inconvenience to other drivers. Those who do so should be aware that its use, which is only to allow another vehicle to pass, can be enforced.

VANDALISM?

Something rather disgusting has been happening in Scalford. Either dog bins are being emptied and the contents thrown around the village—or some dog owners are using doggie bags and then throwing them over the nearest hedge. Either way, apart from the sheer repugnancy of having bags of dog mess lying around an attractive, conservation village, it also poses a health risk not only to the perpetrators, but also to anyone (particularly children) who may come into contact with them.

SCALFORD CEMETERY

Would visitors please ensure that ONLY garden rubbish is put in the brown bins. The MBC are supplying a black bin for your convenience, but until this is delivered, please take home any non-compostible rubbish.

LOW COST HOUSING

A REMINDER that any local residents can apply to occupy one of these low cost homes when they become vacant.

Names should initially be put on the waiting list at both the Melton Borough Council and the Housing Association:

fch Housing & Care,
68a Leicester Road, Loughborough,
LE11 2AG, tel. 01509.217443.

ANNUAL PARISH MEETING

This will be held at 7.00 pm on Wednesday, 10th May, followed by the monthly Parish Council meeting.

Goadby Marwood Parish Church

Would anyone like to join the team of flower arrangers who decorate the church on special occasions—Easter, Harvest and Christmas—or for the two services held per month. You don't have to be of Chelsea Flower Show standard, nor spend a lot of money. It's just nice to see flowers in church, and we do have quite a few visitors from March to October.

Or would anyone like to clean the church brasses occasionally? This is usually done once a month for the first of our two services.

If you are able to help, please 'phone 01664.568742, or email Cathy Lawrance at catherine.lawrance@virgin.net.

Eaton Parish Council

SHRINKING VIOLETS

Well, we've decided that is what the residents of Eaton Parish must be. We know there are lots of gorgeous gardens and allotments out there—but has the Clerk's phone been ringing with entries for the gardens and allotments competitions? No, it has not. What a modest lot you are. Come on, get on the phone. Even if you are the non-gardener of the establishment, or if your friend or neighbour is the next Alan Titchmarsh, but needs a bit of a push, then ask them if you can nominate them. Who knows? Perhaps these shrinking violets are longing to take centre stage and transform into a stunning feature.

Parish Reading Group

Small Island by Andrea Levy is set in 1948 when the first wave of Caribbean immigrants come to Britain after World War II. Andrea Levy tells the story from each character's perspective, moving backward and forward in time, as each is forced to come to grips with the reality of their situation in a world that has changed beyond their expectations.

We felt the book dealt very well with issues of racism and also gave a good insight of how England was after the second world war. It managed to compare life in the two countries and thereby show why there was such a migration to England despite the apparent poverty here. We all thought this was informative and well written and awarded it 4-5 out of a possible 5 stars.

The Parish Reading group meets at Goadby Marwood Village Hall, please feel free to come along to our next meeting when we will be reading Desert of Bohemia by Jill Paton-Walsh on Tuesday 9th May 2006 at 7:30.

The following month we will be reading Breathing Lessons by Anne Tyler on Tuesday 6th June 2006 at 7:30.

There is a £1 charge to cover the costs of the village hall.

Please contact Colette Stein 01664 464823 for further information.

Goadby Marwood Methodist Church

Some of you will know that the Methodist Church in Goadby Marwood has recently had a small extension built, which means that we now have toilet facilities. We would like to offer the premises as a facility for small groups looking for a venue for retreats or quiet days. The location of the church lends itself to such activities. We are not making a charge, but would ask for a realistic contribution towards the cost of heating and lighting.

Anyone wishing to use the church in this way should contact Mrs Marjorie Prest on Melton (01664)464.244.
