Defibrillator Update

The Parish Council are pleased to confirm that the defibrillators in Goadby Marwood and Eaton are installed and ready to use; the outer casing has been installed in the telephone box in Eastwell. The telephone box in Eastwell will be given a coat of paint in the next week to smarten it up and the defibrillator will be installed in the next two weeks.

The Parish Council thank everyone who generously donated towards the cost of all three defibrillators, which meant they could be purchased and installed much sooner than anticipated.

Notices

DAVID ON HIS BIKE

Thomas and James' dad AKA David Shepherd of Chapel Street in Eaton cycled 300 miles from London to Paris on 20th September in three days.

Having never really cycled before, he trained really hard all year to raise money for Macmillan Cancer Support, after one of his work colleagues sadly died last year. Many who have already pledged their support asked for details of how they could help him and a few others raise their target of £15,000, so here are the website details:

http://uk.virginmoneygiving.com/team/TeamAnna_DSA

Thank you for all your support; it is very much appreciated.

SCALFORD POPPY APPEAL COLLECTION 2013

Penny Jackson, Jim McNamara and Julie Laffan will be collecting for the Poppy Appeal during the weeks 26th October to 9th November. Your donations to this very worthwhile appeal are gratefully received, no matter how small or large.

Fundraising results

EATON HARVEST FESTIVAL

As a result of the Harvest Festival collection and sale of produce, the church was able to send £100 to the Farm Crisis Network.

I didn't know: the only complete 10th century Saxon cross in Leicestershire stands 8 ft in Sproxtton churchyard.

EASTWELL CHURCH FLOWER ARRANGING

Many, many thanks to Margaret Nixon, who has agreed to join the Eastwell flower rota.

As Advent is coming up, it would seem to be an opportune moment to start the new rota in the New Year, and rotate alphabetically: ie. Annie Casson, Audrey Cawthorn, June Francis, Judy Goodson and Margaret Nixon.

June is down for 10th November, and with 24th November being the last Sunday before Advent, there may not be a need for more. Also, maybe Christmas could be a joint effort?

The new rota in January will start with Annie.
