General Notices

1 ST LONG CLAWSON SCOUT GROUP

Our Beaver Colony is looking for new leaders. We are an action packed group of 24 boys and girls aged 6-8, who enjoy taking part in many different activities, such as games, crafts, cooking, sleep-overs, to name but a few.

SADLY, IF WE DON'T FIND NEW LEADERS
BEFORE CHRISTMAS IT MEANS WE WILL CLOSE.

We are looking for adults 18 years plus who like fun and games and doing adventurous things, who would need to complete a CRB and be willing to undertake some training.

What can beavers offer you? A chance to work within one of the largest youth organisations, valuable experience of working with young people, expanding your own skills and making new friends. As a group we will provide your CRB and training for free, and can help with uniform costs.

We are also looking for a group scout leader, chairman and a secretary.

PLEASE HELP US, AS WE DON'T WANT TO CLOSE.
CAN YOU GIVE US THE BEST CHRISTMAS
PRESENT SANTA COULD EVER DELIVER?

TUG OF WAR

An all-conquering tug of war team is celebrating after heaving their way to a European title in the Netherlands

The Scalford-based outfit were crowned the open club champions in the 720 kg weight division at the European Tug of War Championships which brought together 66 teams from 18 nations.

The team qualified for the European championships after winning the national qualifying event at Sandhurst in June. Tim Lee from Scalford has coached the team since 1992 and he and his son William from Scalford both took part.

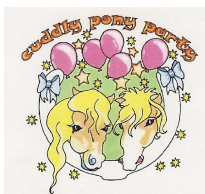

Two other members of the team, Justin Shepherd and Des Jarram, live in the Vale of Belvoir; the remaining four in the team regularly travel from as far afield as York and Kings Lynn.

The team trains in a field off Ironstone Lane three times a week and competes throughout the country most Sundays from April to September.
