VALE POLICING WITH PCSO PALMER

This month I would like to take the opportunity to talk to you a bit about Hate Crime and what to do if you are a victim of this type of crime. A Hate Crime is a crime that the victim, or any other person, perceives to be motivated by prejudice towards any aspects of a person's identity, based on, but not limited to, one of the following:

*religion *gender *disability (including mental health *ethnicity *sexuality

This hostility may be wrong or misplaced, for example the offender may think that you are gay when in fact it's not the case. Despite this, it is still classed as a hate crime or incident. Hate crime is a violation of personal and civil rights and can have a major impact on someone's life, as well as on communities in which we live.

Leicestershire Police take reports of hate crime very seriously, and positive action is taken by investigating officers to ensure thorough investigations are completed in every case. In the Vale, these reports are very few and far between; however, they do occur. Nationally there has been a rise in the number of reported incidents since the Brexit vote results were announced.

It is illegal to say anything or produce any material that tries to persuade someone to commit any offence against another race or group of people. This includes leaflets, posters, or speeches that encourage such an act. Anyone who is convicted at court of being involved in a hate crime can expect a lot tougher sentence, as it is deemed to be an aggravated offence which means it is more serious. The courts have a duty to take this into account with sentencing and to make it clear that it has done so.

If you are a victim, or witness, to something that you perceive to be a hate crime, please report it to us via 101 or 999 in an emergency.

Remember: what we don't know about, we can't act on!

PCSO 60016 Liam Palmer, Leicestershire Police, Eastern Counties NPA,
The Vale Beat Team, (NR34); email liam.palmer@leicestershire.pnn.police.uk,

GENERAL NOTICESBOOK LAUNCH AT SCALFORD TEAROOM

ANNA STASINSKA of Scalford hosted a book launch party at her Old Brickyard Tea Garden. "The Village Awakes" by Jill Bernhardt is, as its title suggests, a book all about villages, village life and some remarkable people. The author has lived in villages in England, Scotland, Spain and Australia and recounts aspects of village life in all of them.

There are concise biographies of people like Pearl who, as a child, escaped from the Channel Islands just before the German invasion and the Village Veteran who, as a 17-year-old volunteered for service in the RAF in WWII. Village elders tell of their youth and who they used to be and what they used to do. "This will show" explained Jill "that the elderly have not been forever old - and the humorous 'peeks' at village life could be any village anywhere. If the village way of life were to disappear - that would be more than sad".

Anna Stasinska, who is also well known as an illustrator/designer, commented: "It was my pleasure to illustrate this delightful little book".

The book has been sponsored so that all proceeds go to village good causes. "The Village Awakes" is priced £8.50 and can be purchased at The Old Brickyard Tea Garden which is open every weekend.

EATON HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY
INCORPORATING EASTWELL AND GOADBY MARWOOD

A big THANK YOU to all the exhibitors, visitors, helpers and judges who made our 91st ANNUAL SHOW on Saturday, 27th August, a success. There were over 300 entries covering all the categories, including children's. The judges were impressed with the quality and variety of the exhibits, and many comments of praise were given.

It was encouraging to see both old and new exhibitors. We hope you all enjoyed the day and will keep this friendly, annual event in your gardening calendars.

GOODBYE FROM BEVERLEY AND DAVID

This month we retire from full time ministry and move to the Sleaford area of Lincolnshire. We have made many friends in this area over the years and will miss you all and think about you often.

Whilst I have had the paid job, David has also worked with great faith and energy in this area both as a supply teacher, keyboard player and service leader and preacher. He has been a huge support to me and to many others. He will miss you as I am sure you will miss him.

It has been a great privilege to serve as Rector of our 7 churches over the last twelve and a half years. As the church is made up of human beings just like you and I, we have had some wonderful moments and some difficult moments, and have made some very good decisions and have also got things wrong.

I hope all wrong things have been sorted out by now, so that the new Rector will be able to start with a clean sheet and make their own faith journey with you all as the Church of England parish priest in this area.

If you would call yourself a Christian, then please get behind your village church at this time when there is no vicar (we hope the space will be short!). There are many things you can do to help and some lovely formal and informal worship services to attend. The Church of England has always had a middle of the road voice in this country and needs to be strong enough to speak out against extremist ideologies. It can only do this with the support of the people of middle England.

The buildings are in much better order than they have been for some years. All of our churches are either grade one or grade two star buildings and I think the community owes a huge debt to the hard work of the church congregations and friends in improving the buildings for worship and village use. Now they need using and services need attending - we have a huge variety of services - so find something you like in one of the churches and support that. It would be a huge encouragement to me if this were to happen.

So a huge thank you to everyone for your love, friendship, forgiveness and support. We have loved it here and have learned so much about life and faith from so many of you. We have to move on (it comes with the job) and we look forward to being retired but will miss our ironstone village life a great deal.

Thank you all and God bless you all and keep you safe in his love.
