to everyone in these villages

For once there is plenty of space - quiet month - which means not everything is where it should be. I hope nothing has been left out in the rush to get it to the printers this month. I also hope there aren't too many mistakes.

Please may I have all news for February by Monday, 22nd January

This month Jenny Barnes will be collecting subscriptions for the 2018 tote.

The cost is £12 per year (ie. £1 per month): we have 67 members at the moment - although the numbers range from 1 to 85, there are some 'unlived in' numbers, due to people moving away, etc.

Each month five numbers are drawn, with a £5 prize for each. If you have recently moved into the village and would like to be part of the tote (run by and for the church), please get in touch with Jenny on 01949 860206, or email jennybarnes04@btinternet.com.

Although she is happy to come round and collect the money, if anyone would prefer to put their membership fee through her door, that would be appreciated.

Letter from the Rector

Standing at the gate ....Dear Reader of the Village News,

How do you view the arrival of 2018? Maybe you are one of those people who see the New Year as a fresh opportunity to turn over a new leaf, and make a resolution to change something about the way you live. Or maybe you have things to which you are especially looking forward during the coming year. For example, my wife Mary and I are looking forward to a special family event later this year, when our elder daughter Rosie is getting married to her fiancé Matthew.

While we may well have specific events noted in our diaries and calendars for 2018, doubtless other important things will happen during the coming year that we will not expect, and which may - or may not - be welcome. Some events - such as the onset of ill health, or the death of a loved one - will remind us that many of the most important things in life are not under our control.

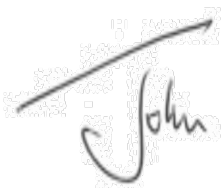

When we look at the world around us, the future is also uncertain. We don't know where the current Brexit negotiations will take us, and what impact any final agreement will have. We don't know how war devastated countries like Syria will find a path to peace, and how all the nations will respond to global issues like climate change. We live in a world that is facing huge challenges and injustices - political, social environmental, economic, moral and spiritual - and it is hard to be certain what - if any - progress might be made in addressing these during 2018.

The truth is that we simply don't know what 2018 will bring for us, or for our world. We are embarking on a journey into the unknown. Yet in doing so, we are not left on our own. We share the journey with our families and friends, churches and communities. And Christians believe that God also seeks to share in our journey. Through the light of Jesus Christ - whose birth we have just celebrated at Christmas - we are assured that God has come to walk life's journey with us, and to lead us - if we are open to trust the Living Lord - into His future for us.

In her poem God Knows, Minnie Haskins expresses this truth in words that were quoted by King George VI during his 1939 Christmas broadcast: "And I said to the one who stood at the gate of the year, 'Give me a light that I may tread safely into the Unknown'. And he replied, 'Go out into the darkness and put your hand into the hand of God. That shall be to you better than light and safer than a known way'".

With all good wishes for this New Year,

(John Barr, Rector)

SCALFORD METHODIST CHURCH*Letter from the Revd James Skinner

Dear Friends,

What will you do on New Year's Eve? Will you happily say goodbye to 2017 with relief? Or was it a year you enjoyed, full of happy memories?

Looking to the future is not something that all of us do with relish. Some may be looking forward to 2018 with new opportunities unfolding, others may be fearful of what may lie ahead. For me, this calls to mind the Christmas broadcast King George VI made in 1939, at the start of the Second World War, when he quoted Minnie Louise Haskins' poem, The Gate of the Year".

And I said to the man who stood at the gate of the year:

"Give me a light that I may tread safely into the unknown".

And he replied: "Go out into the darkness and put your hand into the Hand of God.

That shall be to you better than any light and safer than a known way".

In the Methodist church we are blessed with many hymns that reflect on the passing of the old year and look forward to the new one. This hymn by Joseph Hart from the 18th century sums up how many Christians would approach the change of the year:

*'Tis Jesus, the first and the last,
whose Spirit shall guide us safe home;
we'll praise him for all that is past,
and trust him for all that's to come.*

Another practice in the Methodist tradition since 1747 has been to renew our promises to serve God in whatever way he wishes to use us. John Wesley, the initiator of the Methodist movement, encouraged others to do this. It was a custom passed on to him by his mother from her Puritan father.

On 31st December Anglican churches from the Ironstone Benefice and the Methodist churches at Stonesby and Scalford will be meeting to share in renewing our promises to God. The service will be at Waltham Parish Church and start at 10.30 am. I shall be leading and the Revd John Barr preaching. All are welcome to be part of what has become a very meaningful occasion for Christians throughout the years.

I look forward to meeting you then, but if I don't - many best wishes to you all for 2018.

GENERAL NOTICES

EASTWELL*CalendarsWe have seven calendars left featuring photographs entered into the photo competition held over the weekend of 30th September/1st October.The photographs chosen for the calendar were not necessarily winning photographs, but those which seemed to portray the months of the year.The calendars are A4 size, and are on sale at £6.00 each. If you would like to see a copy before buying, there is one in the church on the bookcase. *Please contact either Janet Knapp (861767) or Sue Watford (861256) if you would like to buy one.Carol singingWe'd like to apologise to the few homes we didn't manage to visit. As the group of singers was not large enough to split in two, it obviously took longer to work our way round, and we decided it was rather too late to continue.Many thanks to those who let us know (following a request in last month's yellow pages) that either you would be out, or it was inconvenient for the singers to call.
It was appreciated.Also thanks to everyone who gave so generously - a total of £111.00 was raised, which will be sent to the charity 'One Roof'.*Eastwell, cont ....Christmas concertThe children of Stathern Primary School gave a wonderful performance at their Christmas concert in Eastwell church on 8th December. The PCC wish to thank them all - also Matt Lee (their headmaster) and all teachers who were involved.The evening made a profit of £165.00 for church funds.Christmas FayreA total of £135.00 was raised; it was intended that this would be split between the Village Hall and the church, but the Village Hall have generously donated their half to the church, a gesture truly appreciated by the PCC.Old Brickyard

List of donations during 2017

Thanks to everyone who has donated towards the cost of printing these pages over the past year; the generous support of these groups, organisations and individuals has ensured the yellow pages have continued for another year. As you can see from the summary of funds held on page 11, we have £216.00 in hand at the end of December, when we will have paid for January's printing. The cost of printing each month is £95.

The total amount donated by the following groups, etc., was £785.00:

Eastwell Village Hall	Eaton Horticultural Society	Scalford Village Hall
Scalford Parish Council	Eaton Parish Council	Eastwell History Group
Scalford Methodist Church

A total of £125.00 was also donated by various individuals during the year.

Many, many thanks to all.
