Letter from the Rector

Climate Change: Code Red for Humanity ...?

Dear Friends,

I write this article on the day that a major UN scientific report has set out how human activity is changing the climate in unprecedented and sometimes irreversible ways. The sober assessment of our planet's future has been delivered by the UN's Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC), a group of scientists whose findings are endorsed by the world's governments.

Their study warns of increasingly extreme heatwaves, droughts and flooding, and a key temperature limit being broken in just over a decade.

Echoing the scientists' stark findings, the UN Secretary General Antonio Guterres has said that the report "is a code red for humanity". For those of us who live in the West, the dangers of warming our planet are no longer something distant, impacting people in faraway places. As one of the authors of the IPCC report, Dr Friederike Otto from the University of Oxford, has pointed out: "Climate change is not a problem of the future, it's here and now and affecting every region in the world".

However, all is not yet lost. The scientists also say that a catastrophe can be avoided, provided that the world acts quickly. As the UN Secretary General puts it: "If we combine forces now, we can avert climate catastrophe. But ... there is no time for delay and no room for excuses. I count on government leaders and all stakeholders to ensure COP26 (UN climate change conference in Glasgow from 31st October to 12th November) is a success".

This month is being marked by a growing number of churches as the Season of Creation (<https://seasonofcreation.org>) - a time to reflect on how we might find better ways of caring for this planet. One of the five Anglican marks of mission is "to strive to safeguard the integrity of creation, and sustain and renew the life of the earth". This reminds us that those who follow Jesus Christ are called to care for this world because it is God's world - not ours - the world Jesus came to save by overcoming the power of sin and death, and by opening the way to new life with God.

There are so many ways in which you and I can make a difference in caring for our world - both as individuals, and together. For example, the Diocese of Leicester is committed to becoming an Eco Diocese, and further information is available on the Diocesan website (www.leicester.anglican.org), including details of how to join in Eco Action.

Acting together we can bring fresh hope to planet earth, our common home.

With all good wishes,

(John Barr, Rector)

AUTUMN ADULT CHRISTIAN LEARNING OPPORTUNITIESABCDD ('a Biblical Christian Doctrine and Discipleship' course)

This six session online course has been produced by the Revd Dr Mary Barr and will be via Zoom on six Wednesday evenings (7.30 to around 9.00 pm) from 13th October.

It is designed for the refreshment and reinvigoration of long-standing Church members. It would also be an opportunity for those who consider themselves to be on the fringes of faith to find out more, and should be useful for anyone who has not yet been baptised and/or confirmed and who would like to prepare for this. Taking a fresh look at the fundamentals of the teaching (ie. Doctrine) found in the Bible and the Christian Creeds, we'll continue to be faithful 'life-long learners' in what St Benedict called 'the school for the Lord's service'.

If you're interested in joining this six-week course, please email maryebarr17@gmail.com.Living in Love and Faith

You can now enrol to take part in the Living in Love and Faith (LLF) Taster half-day on Saturday, 11th September.

To enrol please contact Abbie Allen: abbie.allen@leicestercofe.org.

This event is an opportunity to learn about the vision and purpose of the Living in Love and Faith project and to explore some of the resources. Eeva John, the national church Enabling Officer, will be present and there will also be an opportunity to hear from Andy Brockbank, the diocesan LLF Advocate and other members of the Living Well Together Group. The Taster day will start at 9.30 am and finish around 1.00 pm. This will be a Zoom event, so there is no need to worry about travel or parking.

For more information about what LLF is click here:

<https://www.leicester.anglican.org/info-for-leaders/living-in-love-and-faith/>

We are hoping to hold the five session Living in Love and Faith Course locally during the autumn. If you would be interested in taking part, please email johnbarr2817@gmail.com.

GENERAL NOTICES*THE RED LION COMMUNITY GROUP STATHERN

Do you remember the Red Lion at Stathern? This award-winning pub drew people from far and wide to enjoy the high quality of dining it provided.

Sadly the Red Lion has now been closed for a few years and while we continue to enjoy our other pub, The Plough, we miss the very different offering from the Red Lion.

The owner has now offered it for sale. Some residents have formed the Red Lion Community Group to help ensure that this Asset of Community Value re-opens as a viable business for the benefit of the local community and visitors. Our first step is to gauge wider interest through a questionnaire, which will also help us to access consultancy and funding. If you are able to support us on our journey by completing our questionnaire, please use this link:

<https://forms.gle/TDJZCdTuaOrfwVrN6>

We would appreciate receiving your response by 15th September.

Alternatively, please contact one of the following to request a printed or electronic copy of the questionnaire: Peter Jordan, tel 01949 860230; or Sally Fagan, tel 07967 699614; or send us an email at RedLionCommunityGroup@gmail.com.

Many thanks for your interest and support.

ANY OLD IRON?

Do you have any stashed away in a corner of the garage (or anywhere else) which you've been intending to get rid of for some time? ... which you'd be happy for the church to profit from? We're happy to collect. Please contact Janet (01949 861767), Stella (01949 861827) or Sue (01949 861256).

There will be the opportunity to discuss the challenges with the volunteers who have been working on the project for the past five years and more.

LIVE@EASTWELL

We plan to start up again in October when we will hopefully have had a bit of time getting used to meeting indoors. Three shows have been booked which we hope will appeal to a wide range of tastes. This is dependent on there being no Covid restrictions in place. In the event of cancellation all monies will be refunded.

MORGANWAY

Saturday, 9th October, 7.45 pm. Doors 7.00 pm

Striking six-part harmonies, energetic rhythms, catchy songs and a fiercely formidable live act, Morganway have made quite an impression on the UK's rising Americana scene. Part country, part rock, with sprinklings of folk and something else entirely, it's not easy categorising the band's "delightfully unconventional sound". With a British Country Music Award Nomination for UK Band of the Year, Morganway have caught the attention of Whispering Bob, and they have been described as "One of the best and most exciting prospects to emerge in a long time".

CONNOR SELBY

Saturday, 30th October, 7.45 pm. Doors 7.00 pm

Connor Selby is a rising British star in the traditions of Eric Clapton and Peter Green. He has already performed with his band at Wembley Stadium, at the age of 22, at the behest of The Who. Voted Young Artist of the Year in the 2020 UK Blues Awards, Connor and his band played a memorable gig in Eastwell in February 2020 and it will be great to welcome them back.

NOBLE JACKS

Friday, 26th November, 7.45 pm

Doors 7.00 pm

With the fiddle leading the charge, Noble Jacks are out to take no prisoners with their high-energy foot-stompin' rhythms, which have taken crowds by storm across the UK. Hailed as the finest purveyors of folk-influenced Americana, the band were invited to showcase at Americana Fest in Nashville, USA where they went down a storm. Those who were at the February 2018 gig in Eastwell still talk about how special it was, so we are delighted that Noble Jacks are returning. To enhance the atmosphere there are standing as well as seated tickets available.
