Letter from the Rector

Opening up again ...

Dear Friends,

It is lovely to see how things are beginning to open up again. If you look at local publications like Village News and the various village Facebook pages, you'll see how many different community groups and organisations are now starting to meet again, after what seems like a long 'hibernation'. In fact, with all the new signs of life and activity, it does feel a bit more like spring than autumn!

A few days ago, it was a real joy to share in the Scaford School harvest service in St Egelwin's Church - the first time that we have gathered together 'in person' for nearly two years. Looking at the sea of faces - those who I saw regularly before the pandemic, as well as those who have started the school during the pandemic - reminded me of just how much change we have all experienced over the past eighteen months.

As we thanked God for the fruits of the earth, and for those who work hard to bring in the harvest of land and sea, we were also especially thankful to be able to meet together again.

Before the pandemic began, all the Ironstone Churches were open every day. Sadly we had to close them at the start of the first lockdown, and it has taken time and care to reopen on a limited basis, and in a way that complies with the evolving Covid safety guidelines.

Thankfully, we now have several churches open every day - at Eastwell, Goadby

Marwood and Waltham - and we're keeping the situation under review at the others.

In Scaford the presence of the Framland Deanery Multi-Parish Administrator Marie Hough in the newly created shared office means that St Egelwin's is now open on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday mornings, as well as on Sundays.

As well as hosting various community events, our local churches are now seeking to re-establish a regular pattern of worship, and details of services for each month are posted on the yellow pages, the Ironstone Churches own website (www.ironstonechurches.org) and we're also looking to develop other ways of keeping in touch with the villages that we seek to serve.

If you have any thoughts about how we might do this more helpfully, please do let

Marie Hough

(sae.churches@gmail.com, 01664 494424)

or myself

(johnbarr2817@gmail.com 01664 464265)

know. As we continue to open up, we are open to new ideas!

With all good wishes,

Scaford church drawn by Brian Hollingshead

MORGANWAY

Saturday, 9th October, 7.45 pm Doors 7.00 pm

Striking six-part harmonies, energetic rhythms, catchy songs and a fiercely formidable live act, Morganway have made quite an impression on the UK's rising Americana scene. Part country, part rock, with sprinklings of folk and something else entirely, it's not easy categorising the band's "delightfully unconventional sound". With a British Country Music Award Nomination for UK Band of the Year, Morganway have caught the attention of Whispering Bob, and they have been described as "One of the best and most exciting prospects to emerge in a long time".

Hailed as the finest purveyors of folk-influenced Americana, the band were invited to showcase at Americana Fest in Nashville, USA where they went down a storm. Those who were at the February 2018 gig in Eastwell still talk about how special it was, so we are delighted that Noble Jacks are returning.
