The Annie Keating Band
Friday, 23rd September, 7.00 pm

Annie Keating writes and sings like a woman who knows deep down that heartache is the price of hope, and she can make us believe - in that way that only the best artists can - that all of it is worth the cost. Over the years she's been compared with great artists ranging from Lucinda Williams to John Prine but now, in 21022, Keating has found a UK band that takes her talent to a whole new level through undeniably great live shows that deliver unbridled, raucous joy and an infectious sound. Following the success of her eighth full-length album, 2021's Bristol County Tides, Keating will bring this full band tour de force to a run of autumn '22 England/Ireland shows, along with an unreleased limited-edition EP of brand new songs ONLY AVAILABLE to fans on the tour.

RIDE & STRIDE DAY - SATURDAY, 10th SEPTEMBER

It seems worthwhile mentioning this day as an all-in-one, as such a lot seems to be happening in these parishes around the Ride & Stride. Goadby Marwood have a Village History Trail; Waltham are organising a Community Walking Market; and Eastwell have their Autumn Churchyard Market so - a busy day. Maybe anyone who is doing the sponsored cycle ride (see page 19) would be able to visit all three ... If anyone would like to do the cycle ride, sponsorship forms should be available in each of the churches, together with a list of open churches.

EASTWELL CHURCHYARD MARKET

Having a clear out? Or have you been intending to remove something which is too good to simply throw out? Would you be willing to give it the chance to find another good home? Eastwell PCC would be very grateful for any items they could offer for sale at their churchyard market on 10th September. Please contact Sue Watford (01949 861256, or email suewatford2@gmail.com).

LOST KEYS

Finally, a small bunch of keys was left in Eastwell church after the dog show. If they happen to be yours, could you get in touch with Sue Watford (01949 861256, or email suewatford2@gmail.com).

Letter from the Rector

Thirsty ground, and wellspring of life

Dear friends,

Over the past few months, there has been very little rain in our area. While other parts of the UK - Scotland and Northern Ireland included - have had more rainfall, Central and Southern England has seen much less than usual. Water rationing has been introduced in some areas (e.g. hosepipe bans).

The first half of this year has been the driest in England since 1976, and this prolonged spell of dry weather has affected the timing and quality of the harvest gathered by farmers. The impact has also been evident in our gardens - eg. Sun-baked ground, and dry brittle grass.

Perhaps by the time you read this, the situation will have changed; but even so it will certainly take a considerable amount of rain to replenish the depleted reservoirs, and to soften the hard, dry ground.

While we may grumble at having to be more careful in our use of water, other parts of the world are faring so much worse. For example, many parts of Africa (eg. The Horn of Africa) are experiencing the worst drought for many years. This has led to famine - food shortages made even worse by the war in Ukraine which are now affecting global food supplies. Such prolonged hot dry conditions are believed to be closely connected with the impact of climate change.

Our land is thirsty. Yet I wonder when any of our churches last prayed for rain? In the Book of Common Prayer, there is the following prayer for rain:

O God, heavenly Father, who by thy Son Jesus Christ hast promised to all them that seek thy Kingdom, and the righteousness thereof, all things necessary to their bodily sustenance: Send us, we beseech thee, in this our necessity, such moderate rain and showers, that we may receive the fruits of the earth to our comfort, and to thy honour; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

In the dry and thirsty lands of the Bible, rain is seen as a God-given blessing. And it is also a picture of the spiritual blessing that God longs to give when people turn away from their foolish ways, and seek to return to the Lord.

Christians believe that as we turn to Jesus Christ, we find in Him all we shall ever need to soften our hard hearts and quench our spiritual thirst. Jesus says this to all who hear His voice and come to Him in faith: "Whoever drinks the water I give them will never thirst. Indeed, the water I give them will become in them a spring of water welling up to eternal life"! (John 4.14).

With all good wishes,

(John Barr, Rector)

NATIONAL SURVIVOR SURVEY LAUNCHED TO INFORM THE CofE's SAFEGUARDING WORK

A national survey of survivors and victims of abuse has been launched by the Church of England to listen to their views on the development and implementation of its safeguarding structure. It is an opportunity to be involved in the development and implementation of a Church of England survivor engagement framework, which will set out how victims and survivors of abuse will inform the Church's work to develop and improve safeguarding.

The anonymous survey is available on the survivor engagement webpage of the Church of England's website and runs for two months from 19th July until 18th September 2022. Find out more here.

SCALFORD CHURCH/CHURCHYARD

As the world moves on from Covid, we find ourselves struggling with other problems. Let us remember the people of Ukraine - off the front pages, but still struggling; or the cost of living which comes as hard reality to many; or the drought and hunger in parts of Africa. These are worldwide conundrums, but here in Scalford we have our own worries.

One thing which perhaps came out of Covid was that humans need company, but they also need peace - quiet time to reflect and think. Over shutdown the school in our village used the churchyard for the younger children to go to and have some 'time'. The older children are able to go to the allotments.

Together with the help of generous local businesses, we have hung up bird feeders, put up nesting boxes, positioned hedgehog houses, put out a water tray, built insect hotels and provided two benches. These are not only to encourage our natural world and our understanding of it, but also to provide a quiet place for all, whatever your age or inclination, to go and sit and have time for yourself.

The churchyard is a surprisingly diverse place with much history (family and past goings on), birdlife, bats, vegetation, small animals and insects. We are lucky to have the area so well looked after by the Parish Council and you are all invited to use this space. Go either way round the church building and take a few moments to appreciate the quiet area you will find. Give yourself a few minutes (and the church is open most days if it's wet).

Community Quiet Area in Scalford Churchyard

If you can suggest other improvements/additions to the area, please tell us, or just offer a few minutes to check it over: either would be appreciated.

GENERAL NOTICES

THE DOG SHOW - EASTWELL CHURCHYARD

A very large thank you to everyone who helped with this event - it has to be the most help we have ever had (apart from at the Fete) - not only those who helped to prepare for the day, but also the many people who helped clear away and pack up afterwards. It was very much appreciated, and helped to make a very successful, relaxed day. Also, thanks to the children who geared up their imaginations and produced some brilliant Lego dogs; and those who used the craft table and displayed their work.

The PCC would also like to register their thanks to Gill Hewitt, who organised it, our judge, Charlotte Aston, Kate of Eastwell Dog Grooming and Glenda for her fruit and vegetable stall. and hopefully we haven't tumbled down the chasm which opens up when mentioning a list of names. The profit amounted to a very useful total of £285.00.
