FESTIVE FUNDRAISER
December 2022

Dove Cottage has partnered with Treasure Trails to bring you an exciting mission!

The 'White Wings over Belvoir' trail has been created specifically for Dove, and gives families the opportunity to explore the local area from a different perspective.

Why not help us raise some money this festive season and become a Dove detective? This self-guided treasure hunt will take you around peaceful villages in the Vale, starting at Long Clawson and visiting Hose, Langar, Granby, Belvoir Engine Yard and Eaton before finishing at our tea room - all whilst looking for clues to solve the hunt!

Fancy dress is not mandatory to complete the trail but is strongly encouraged! Why not get into the festive spirit by wearing a Christmas outfit or accessory, and encourage people to sponsor you to complete your mission! Raise over £25 and we'll send you a festive medal! (sponsorship money must be received by Dove Cottage by 31st January 2023 to receive a medal).

Trails can be bought from any of our shops or by emailing fundraising@dovecottage.org. Trails are £10; all profits go to Dove Cottage.

Complete your trail before the end of December, and we'll give you a voucher for one free hot drink plus sweet treats for the kids, to enjoy at our Dove Cottage Tea Room. Vouchers will be issued for redemption at our Stathern Tea Room before 31st January 2023.

Letter from the Rector

Blessed are the peacemakers

Dear friends,

During this month, there will be gatherings across our villages to remember those who lost their lives or were seriously injured in war and armed conflict.

On Armistice Day (11th) and Remembrance Sunday (13th), many of us will pause at 11 o'clock to remember. Something I find very moving is when - just before the two minutes silence is observed - the list of names is read out, in memory of those young men from our parishes who, at the call of King and Country, left all that was dear to them, endured hardship, faced danger and finally passed out of mortal sight by the paths of duty and self sacrifice, giving up their own lives that others might live in freedom".

Yet, as the years pass by, there are fewer people still alive who can share their personal experiences of what it was like to live through the Second World War. My wife Mary's mother is someone who can, and it is moving to listen to her recalling what it was like living in the Devon seaside port town of Teignmouth which was targeted by the German bombers.

She has vivid childhood memories of being woken in the night by sirens warning people to take cover, of the street where she lived being hit by stray bombs which devastated houses and the hospital, rather than the dockyard, killing her neighbours and friends, and of school lessons wearing gas masks, running home at the end of the day wondering if her family members were still alive and well.

Today, you and I live in a world which, sadly, is still no stranger to war. Indeed, we are all being affected by another European War - the war in Ukraine. Once again, we are made aware of how human conflict destroys lives and communities.

Yet we also know - as history keeps trying to remind us - that evil must be confronted, whatever the cost. Whether Hitler or Putin, those who would impose their will on others by brutal force must be resisted and defeated.

The struggle for a better world continues. While we are not on the front line of current wars, nonetheless we do have a part to play in the struggle for peace with justice.

As we remember those who have made the ultimate sacrifice, we can also resolve to be peacemakers - wherever we find ourselves in situations of disharmony and strife.

That's surely what we're called to do if we seek to follow the Way of Jesus Christ. For Jesus says to all who would follow Him: "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God" (Matthew, chapter 5, verse 9).

With all good wishes,

(John Barr, Rector)

Scalford Primary School are currently looking for volunteers who would like to join them for their Open the Bible Together in Worship. This takes place at the Village Hall on a Wednesday at 1.00 pm.

Open the Bible offers children the opportunity to hear key Bible stories read by a team of volunteers from family members to locals. Each story takes around five to ten minutes and is incorporated into their whole school Together in Worship.

The format is always the same: an introduction is given to the story that is to be told, then comes the telling of the story, and finally there is a short reflection and discussion of our Christian Values.

The way the story is told varies from week to week, from a simple reading of the story to it being narrated and acted out by the children, who are always enthusiastic about taking part. A member of staff will always be with you to help support you in whatever capacity you require.

The school believes that Open the Bible provides the children with an opportunity to develop their knowledge and understanding of religious stories through an active, drama based approach as well as allowing them to learn alongside other members of the community. It has made biblical stories and themes relevant, exciting and accessible to the children.

If you think this is something you, or any of your family members, would be interested in helping with or you require more information, please contact the R E Coordinator, Miss T Moore, at tmoore@scalford.leics.sch.uk
