JANUARY 2024 NEWS

All the 2024 meeting dates and their venues can be seen on the Parish Council website at www.eatonpc.org.uk and the next 2024 meeting will be on Monday, 15th January at Eastwell. As always members of the public are very welcome.

The December meeting finalised details of the 2024-25 budget and the precept to be demanded from Melton Borough Council. Again full details can be found in the draft December minutes on the website. But it reflects the Council's stated aim to both support, enhance and improve all areas of the parish where possible. Hence a significant grant to Goadby Marwood Village Hall, a renewal of the hedging at Eastwell crossroads and continued support for the five year ECPA Plan.

Invoices for the 2024 allotment rents have just been sent out and an early payment would be appreciated so that vacant plots can be let to a growing (??) waiting list. The 2024 Tenancy Agreement has an additional requirement on the liability of plot holders which should be noted.

Lastly, at the December meeting it was agreed that (Cllr) Simon Tong would be the council's representative in discussions with neighbouring parishes about arrangements for forthcoming 2024 festivals such as Forbidden Forest.

Letter from the Rector

Looking back and looking forward .....

Dear friends,

How do you approach the start of another year? Do you find yourself looking back - maybe with both regret for what is now 'in the past', but also with gratitude for what was good, or with relief at leaving a difficult time behind you? And how do you feel about what lies ahead - maybe a mixture of optimism tinged with anxiety?

How we feel about the future is, of course, influenced by what's going on in the world around us. 2023 was such a tumultuous year - full of uncertainty, war, and environmental disaster. So we ask ourselves, will the New Year bring more of the same, or do we dare to hope for real improvements?

Human beings have always wrestled with the mixed emotions that accompany our looking back and looking forward, and people have often turned to their religious belief to give them inspiration at the turn of the year.

The very word 'January' comes from the name of the ancient Roman god Janus. Represented by a double-faced head, Janus was the deity presiding over doors and gateways, the god of beginnings, transitions and endings. He has two faces because one looks to the future and one to the past.

The Bible gives us ample assurance that we can trust the past to the God who created and loves this world and who holds our future in His hands. The prophet Jeremiah records this divine promise: "For surely I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord, plans for your welfare and not for harm, to give you a future with hope" (Jeremiah 29.11).

When Christians celebrate Holy Communion, we're reminded that the past, the present and the future are encompassed by what God has done for us in His Son Jesus, when we say the words: "Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again!".

It was his faith in Jesus Christ that inspired St Paul to write to the church in Rome: "I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory about to be revealed to us...." (Romans 8.18).

Mixed feelings about the past and the future are part of our human nature. We can offer them to our Heavenly Father in prayer, and be strengthened by His Spirit to live in the present moment of each new day in the light of God's love for us in Christ. So - whatever our hopes and fears for our world, our church and ourselves - here's a New Year prayer for us all, adapted from the words of St Paul in Philippians 4.5-07:

Lord, as we trust Your presence with us, help us not to be anxious about anything, but in every situation, to bring our prayers to You with thanksgiving. And may Your peace, which transcends all understanding, keep guard over our hearts and our minds in Christ Jesus. Amen.

With all good wishes,

(John Barr, Rector)

EASTWELL CAROL SINGING IN THE VILLAGE HALL

Thanks to everyone who helped to make the carol singing evening such an enjoyable event. £275.00 was raised for the chosen charities - LOROS and Dove Cottage - a magnificent effort.

And special thanks to Santa for finding time in his busy schedule to drop in.

EVENTS IN JANUARY, cont.*GOADBY MARWOOD 2024 QUIZ

The annual quiz to raise funds for our village will be held at Goadby Marwood Village Hall at 7.00 pm on Saturday, 27th January 2024 .....

Cost £12 per person to include a 2 course home cooked meal.
Food served at 7.00 pm PROMPT!

Quiz rules:

- Teams of 4 to 6. £12 per adult, concessions for under 16s.
- Prizes for winners
- Licenced bar
- Raffle

We can only accommodate 50 people at GMVH because of fire regulations. We need to know who is intending to come to enable planning for the quiz and meal. We already have several tables pre-reserved, so to avoid disappointment, please contact us by phone/email by 7.30 pm on Sunday, 21st January at the very latest. Judging by previous years, we'd expect all tables to be booked by then anyway.

EASTWELL VILLAGE HALL*LIVE AT EASTWELL*True Strays - Saturday, 27th January.

Doors open 7.00 pm

True Strays are lifelong friends, songwriters and country boys - Joseph James and James Cameron - from Bristol. They are fast carving out a niche of their own in the UK Americana scene. Their music is a cathartic celebration of alternative roots americana and blues rock. Their songs focus on the dirt that life throws at you and how struggle can be transformed into something better. The prolific songwriting duo draw influences from classic sounds such as Neil Young, Muddy Waters, Fleetwood Mac. From the rock and roll circumstances of their first meeting in a sand pit in a playgroup 30 odd years ago, they have completed countless UK tours, supported bands such as My Baby and Elles Bailey, played their first European dates and over 70 festivals.

cua - Friday, 1st March. Doors open 7.00 pm

Blending guitars, fiddle, bouzouki, percussion and three part harmony arrangements, from the plains of Ireland to the mountains of Scotland and much farther afield, cua will have the blood pumping. The band have played countless shows in Ireland, toured to Holland and France and completed seven UK tours all to critical acclaim.
