A member of the team will visit you in your home to find out more about you and your reading interests. You will then be matched with a volunteer who will bring you a selection of materials, every three weeks, at a time which suits you, to exchange the items you have borrowed.

March 2024 News

Have you noticed the improvements??

The next 2024 Eaton Parish Council meeting will be on Monday, 11th March at Eaton followed by the Annual Parish Meeting at Goadby Marwood on 20th May, and as always members of the public are very welcome.

The Parish Council has received an application for support at the Blacksmith's site at Eastwell to refurbish the frontage as a paved seating area with two or three benches, a noticeboard, litter bin, and low wall with small flower bed. This would produce a place where villagers could meet, relax and chat.

In addition, it is proposed that in order to raise the village and parish profile, an attractive eye-catching village sign is installed to catch passing visitors' attention. The sign would include scenes depicting past and present life in Eastwell.

If you have an opinion your Councillor would like to hear it.

Letter from the Rector

Following the Servant King ...

Dear friends,

As I write this in February, I know that many are praying regularly for the King.

Following the announcement that King Charles III has been diagnosed with cancer and has stepped back from public-facing duties while he undergoes treatment, many have appreciated the fact that the King shared news of his condition publicly. There has also been praise for the way in which King Charles continues to work on essential royal duties, albeit 'behind the scenes' for the time being.

Like his mother, the late Queen Elizabeth II, King Charles has shown that serving the nation and the commonwealth is a vocation, a calling to serve people even when facing personal difficulties.

And, like his mother, he believes that he serves under God. The Bishop of Durham, the Rt Revd Paul Butler, has recalled a moment before the King's coronation when he told church leaders: "I don't think I'm really King until I've made my vows before God and before the nation, and that I've been anointed, because I can't do this task without God's help".

Christians are all called to serve God and our community as best we can. After receiving Holy Communion, we are sent out to 'love and serve the Lord'. We do this in the name of Christ, our Servant King, who made the ultimate act of loving service by accepting the Cross.

We're invited to reflect on that this month, as we journey through Lent to Good Friday and Easter. Details of special services are to be found on our website, in these pages, and you should also receive this information in an Easter card whose cover has been designed by children from Scalford School.

This year Easter falls on Sunday, 31st March. Some of us will be up early at 6.30 am - even earlier than usual, as the clocks will just have changed to British Summer Time! We shall do so to greet the dawning of Easter Day in Eastwell Churchyard.

Together with Christians across the world, we shall gather to celebrate the dawning of the hope God has given us through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Having remembered the events of Holy Week leading up to the suffering and death of Jesus hanging on a cross, we rejoice in the triumph of God's love over the power of evil, and of God's life over the power of death.

The message at the heart of Easter offers hope for all. Through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, God "has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, and into an inheritance that can never perish, spoil or fade" (1 Peter 1. 3,4).

And it is Christ the Servant King who calls you and me to follow Him in our lives, and to love and serve as He loves and serves us.

Wishing you the light, and hope, and joy of Easter,

(John Barr, Rector)

ST EGELWYN'S PCC - CLEANING ROTA AND FLOWER ROTA 2024

This has not been working too well, so we have changed it from monthly to two-weekly slots and combined the duties into one rota for both. Having said that, if you can't bear one or the other, we would still be very appreciative of your help with whatever you are happy to do - better half a loaf than no bread!

Regarding the cleaning, as St Egelwyn's is so big we're planning a combined attack on Saturday, 6th April, to give it a thorough bottoming (but see GOOD NEWS below!), so please join in for a while if you can - there will be hot and cold drinks, music, laughter (if not romance) and plenty of cake. Children are very welcome - they can do amazing things and have very good ideas. Details in the April issue of these pages.

After that we'll draw up a list of the jobs that will usually need doing and those that can be left for a while (but see below again!) and put it in an obvious place. We're also looking at acquiring some new equipment to make the job easier. Your suggestions would be gratefully received.

In the meantime, GOOD NEWS! Mrs Sue Pyle has very kindly volunteered to keep the floor of the church clean and began this last month with a steam cleaner that has been kindly loaned. THANK YOU, Sue, very much! So that is a major part of the regular cleaning taken care of.

Turning to the flowers, here are four fifth Sundays this year which have not been allocated to anyone. The first is Easter Day and the last the Sunday after Christmas. These are major festivals when traditionally anyone who wishes to do so joins in the decoration of the church - we hope that will continue. Harvest is another such occasion. We are also aware that some people wish to put flowers in the church around a date that is special to them. It's important to make it clear that the rota does not exclude anyone from putting flowers in St Egelwyn's whenever they wish. It's everyone's church. The rota is a fail-safe so that this beautiful building is fittingly kept to the glory of God.

Thank you.

EATON VILLAGE HALL AGM
Thursday, 7th March

There will be a public meeting in the Village Hall starting at 7.30 pm, following by a meeting for the Village Hall Committee members.

All are welcome to find out how your Village Hall has been looked after over the past year.

We are looking for new members to join us, to breathe new ideas and to help take future projects further. If you feel you could contribute towards this, then please come along, or contact a member of the committee, so we can put your ideas forward.

As a committee, we are running the hall on the bare minimum required for the trustees. To keep this facility going, we do need new members.
