EATON PARISH COUNCIL - MAY 2025 NEWS

Clerk: Terry Brown
189 Belton Lane, Grantham, NG31 9PL

Tel: 01476 516366

Email: clerk@eatonpc.org.uk

Hopefully parishioners will have noticed the several improvements around the Parish of late, eg. the new noticeboards at Eastwell and Eaton.

But there is much that remains to be done and in fact it is a task without an end.

All of this in the context of the current Local Government reorganisation.

What does this mean for small parish councils like Eaton, good news or bad??

To be successful, Councillors need your input and therefore the Annual Parish Meeting is a vital opportunity for all parishioners to bring all and any of their concerns and interests to the meeting. Councillors hope to see you there?

And again a reminder that Eaton Parish Council will continue to explore the possibility of such a plan at the Annual Parish Meeting on 19th May at Goadby Marwood Village Hall when Gary Kirk, a neighbourhood planning consultant from YourLocale will give more details of the process.

Letter from the RectorVE Day 80 - Let Us Remember

Dear Friends,

Thursday, 8th May marks the 80th anniversary of VE Day - the Second World War allied victory in Europe. On that day, and the days just before and after it, events will take place to remember this historic milestone. For example at 9.30 pm on the evening of Thursday 8th, an act of remembering with beacons and candles being lit will take place across the country, representing the 'light of peace' that emerged from the dreadful darkness of war.

It is right to remember those who gave their lives at home and abroad, whose sacrifice enables us to all enjoy the peace we have today. Right to remember too those who came home, wounded, physically and mentally, and the friends and family who cared for them. Right to remember also the families that lost husbands, wives, sons, daughters and sweethearts, and the servicemen and women of other nationalities and faiths from Commonwealth and allied countries who fought, suffered and died during six years of war.

And included in our remembrance should be those in reserved occupations and the brave people who kept us safe on the home front: doctors and nurses who cared for the wounded, the men and women who toiled in the fields and veterinary teams, the fisherman who fished the seas, those who worked in the factories and the air-raid wardens, the police officers, firemen, ambulance drivers and the young people of the Scouts and Guides who also played such a vital role in the war effort at home.

So many people were in some way affected by - and involved in - the events of the Second World War. VE Day (and soon after VJ Day) came as a result of great sacrifice. As we remember those sacrifices, anyone unable to join in the outdoor gatherings on 8th May is encouraged to light a candle of peace at home at 9.30 pm, joining with others in praying for peace in current situations of conflict in our world.

In this Easter season, Christians continue to celebrate the hope of true and enduring peace that God has given us through Jesus Christ. He is the One whose death and resurrection has overcome the power of evil, sin and death. His light shines in the darkness of our world, and the darkness has not overcome it. And it is in His light that we can see - and share in - the life of God's Kingdom, where love reigns.

A BIG THANK YOU to all those who helped with the Big Spring Clean last month - the A Team (Dick, Avril and Chris), Penny, Brian and Linda and Alfie, who polishes brass until you can see your face in it! Thank you, Alfie. In just two hours, the whole church looked and smelled clean and bright and ready for Easter.

I should add that there were already some Easter decorations up in the form of paper chains made by the schoolchildren for their end-of-term service the previous day. They looked terrific. A big 'thank you' to the children too.

Following requests, we continue with our Explanation Corner:

40 days after his resurrection on Easter Sunday, Jesus ascended into heaven. During those 40 days he appeared to his disciples many times.

FROM ASCENSION this year on Thursday, 29th May.

After promising his disciples the gift of the Holy Spirit, Jesus ascended into heaven and two angels appeared asking "Why do you stand here looking into the sky? This same Jesus will come back in the same way you have seen him go into heaven".

..... TO PENTECOST (10 days)

This year celebrated on Sunday, 8th June

The Gift of the Holy Spirit: "They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire ... that came to rest on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues".

Pentecost marks the end of the Easter season
